WC Docket No. 16-317

December 16, 2016

Ketchikan Public Utilities hereby provides notice that it intends to begin offering consumer broadband-only loop service on a de-tariffed basis. Effective January 3, 2017, Ketchikan Public Utilities will begin offering consumer broadband-only loop service on a de-tariffed basis pursuant WC Docket no. 16-317 of the Federal Communications Commission's Wireline Broadband order.¹ The Geographic areas affected are within the Ketchikan Public Utilities exchange where facilities exist that are capable of providing Consumer Broadband-only Loop services and upon reasonable request.

This Consumer Broadband-only Data service will replace our existing data only wireline internet access service. All existing customers will be transitioned to this new service on January 3, 2017. These customers will be notified accordingly.

Effective January 3, 2017, Ketchikan Public Utilities will offer wireline broadband-only loop service on a permissive de-tariffed, common carriage basis through posting of rates, terms and conditions available on our company website (www.kputel.com) and in printed copy during normal business hours at Ketchikan Public Utilities business office located at 2417 Tongass Avenue Suite 119D, Ketchikan, AK 99901.
